

FILED

2008 AUG 26 PM 1:28

Mark Scott
P.O. Box 181936
Coronado, Ca.
92178

CLERK US DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIABY: [Signature] DEPUTY

Mark Scott, in pro per

United States District Court
Southern District of California

Mark Scott: Plaintiff vs

Case # 08cv1016

Suit: Fair Labor

Vessel Orion; Defendants
Dave Hammel

Honorable Judge

Jeffrey T. Miller

Request hearing Date

I Mark Scott do request a date in court seeking remedy of the matter which I consider to be a maritime issue of labor and wages. Requested without oral argument.

Authorities of codes in reference

§ 53.25 Basis for jurisdiction, traditional Maritime law vs statutory Maritime Law under 28USCA § 1335

§ 53.6 Constitution decisions of Admiralty? Maritime law jurisdiction of civil cases under Federal District Court

usc 30101 Establishes boundaries of Admiralty concerning vessels definitions of vessels and their relationship to waters docks, ect...

usc 30104-137 Relationship of Marine employment not gauged to standard of land employment.

(continued)

Mark Scott Vs Vessel Orion/Dave Himmel Case# 08CV1016

Authorities of codes (continued)

USC 11107 Concerns fishing agreements

USC 10601 agreements; lay shore (wages would not be based on fish; rather no. of passengers)

CFR - Definition of passenger vessel of 6 or less passengers.

USC 46 10313 Priority Master lien for wages

USC 46 11112 documented vessels lien by master

Common law: [Freight is the mother of wages]

Causes of Action:

USC 46 10313, 10504, 11105, 607

California Rules of Court Rule E; Procedegules of REM actions

Further references:

1. CFR Shipping Coast Guard; their duties of inspection.
2. Benedicts Admiralty law; actions of seaman against vessel.
3. Federal Procedure (Lawyers Edition)
§§ 53.1 - 54:227

I have been a mariner and captain for 30 years; as a seaman would, perform duties without bound of clock nor calendar carried out tasks to obtain 6 pack certification. Actions and recommendations all to the care and well being of the vessel. I don't believe I'm asking for something I don't deserve.

Sincerely

Mark Scott

Date: August 26⁰⁸